

Alexander Demuth

Alexander Demuth, co-head of Alvarez & Marsal's International Arbitration Group and leader of its German Global Forensic and Dispute Services, is a Managing Director based in Munich and Hamburg. He specializes in advising clients in arbitration, litigation and out-of-court settlement with a focus on post-merger disputes and commercial disputes. He has acted as party-appointed or tribunal-appointed expert in international arbitration proceedings under DIS, ICC, ICSID, SIAC and VIAC rules as well as in litigation proceedings. His experience covers various industries, including automotive and automotive supply, biotechnology, manufacturing, pharmaceutical, private equity, renewable energy, retail and software. A German national, Alexander is fluent in German and English and has issued reports and testified in both languages. He is a German Certified Public Accountant (Wirtschaftsprüfer) and has earned his master's degree in economics from the University of Passau. Alexander is a member of the German Institute of Public Auditors (Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer), the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the AICPA Forensic and Valuation Services (FVS), the German Institution of Arbitration (DIS), the Vienna International Arbitration Centre (VIAC), and the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA).