

Dr Rafal Zakrzewski

Dr Rafal Zakrzewski is a solicitor (England & Wales) who specialises in corporate finance with an emphasis on complex lending transactions. He also possesses extensive corporate and commercial law experience. Before resuming full time practice, Rafal was the inaugural University Lecturer in Corporate Law and Transactions at the University of Cambridge, where he established a graduate course on corporate transactions on the Masters in Corporate Law programme and lectured on the Corporate Finance LLM course. He was also a Career Development Fellow at St Hugh's College at the University of Oxford. He holds a doctorate from that university and a bachelor of laws from the University of Queensland. Rafal has worked in Whitehall as an Assistant Parliamentary Counsel on, among other things, the Companies Act 2006. Rafal is the author of Remedies Reclassified on English private law remedies, co-author of The Law of Rescission and a contributor to International Acquisition Finance (all published by OUP). He is a contributor to the Encyclopaedia of Banking Law and Gore-Browne on Companies. He is also an editor of the Cape Town Convention Journal concerning international security interests in mobile equipment.
