

PhD Cezary Wiśniewski is National Senior Partner of the Linklaters Warsaw office with broad experience in corporate work, especially M&A, commercial transactions and privatisation. He represents clients in arbitration proceedings and develops strategies for resolving commercial disputes. He is the author of various publications on commercial and arbitration law. He has been involved in many high-profile international arbitrations, particularly those involving bilateral investment treaty disputes. He has acted as an arbitrator in UNCITRAL and ICC proceedings, as well as in proceedings before the most important and frequently used Polish arbitration venues. Cezary lectures on civil and commercial law at the University of Warsaw. He also frequently appears as panellist and lecturer at various international arbitration related seminars and conferences and is the author of various publications on commercial and arbitration law.