

RASHDA RANA SC
Barrister & International Arbitrator

Rashda is a commercial & construction/infrastructure lawyer with over 25 years' experience in the legal profession. She has advised on and conducted major commercial, banking, maritime, insurance, tax, regulatory and construction & infrastructure litigation, arbitration and mediation involving wide ranging issues. She has worked as counsel and arbitrator in a number of international jurisdictions including London, Australia, New York, Paris, Milan, Brazil, Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia and China and under a variety of institutional and ad hoc rules. She has also held the role of General Counsel for a major global property development and construction company and is an experienced CEDR accredited mediator. Rashda has regularly been recognised for her work in global ranking guides.

Rashda also undertakes non-contentious work in drafting, reviewing and settling major project documentation, including M&A documentation. She has also been Adjunct Professor of Law at Sydney University and published widely in the field of ADR.

Rashda is the current President of ArbitralWomen and the Immediate Past President of the Australian Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.